IN THE SOCIAL WORLD

Carlisle-Allen Wedding at High Noon To-day.

SCHLEYS HERE FOR WINTER

Miss Carolyn Burrell Huff, daughter of Representative Huff, becomes bride of Murray A. Cobb at Greensburg, Pa.—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dunn Celebrate Golden Wedding.

Interest in Washington society centers to-day in the wedding of Miss Jane Carlisle, daughter of Mrs. William K. Carlisle, to Mr. Frederick Lathrop Allen, which will be solemnized at the residence of her grandfather, Mr. John G. Carlisle, who was Secretary of the Treasury under the Cleveland administration, and in the same house in K street where her grandmother, Mrs. Carlisle, dispensed delightful and memorable hospitality at that time. The ceremony will take place at noon, Rev. D. J. Stafford, pastor of St. Patrick's Church, officiating, and will be followed by a breakfast. The bride has recently returned to Washington from Monmouth Beach, where she spent the summer convalescing from the severe illness which necessitated the change of the original wedding date.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page and Mrs. Page's daughter, Mrs. Minna Field Gibson, have opened their house in this city, after spending the summer at York Harbor, Me. Mrs. Gibson and her small son will spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Page.

Mr. Justice and Mrs. Oliver Wendell Holmes have returned from their summer home at Beverly, Mass. They went to Boston Saturday and spent several days there.

Rear Admiral Winfield Scott Schley, U. S. N., and Mrs. Schley have returned to Washington for the winter.

Gen. Charles T. Alexander, U. S. A., arrived at his home in Connecticut, Wednesday evening, from Bar Harbor, where he has spent the summer, and has been joined by Miss Nina Alexander for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Moore are at the New Willard for a week, in consultation with decorators, and arranging for some final details in regard to their new house in Massachusetts avenue, which will be ready for occupancy in the near future. Mr. and Mrs. Moore will return to Swiftmore from here.

Mrs. Thomas Richardson, of Washington, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Dixey, at Lenox, has left there, and will return to her home here very shortly.

The Dolly Madison Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held the first meeting of the season Tuesday evening, October 8, at the home of Mrs. Titcomb, 1605 Irving street. Mrs. Job Barnard presided in the absence of the regent, Mrs. Stafford. After the usual business meeting, members were called upon for experience of the summer, and many interesting short talks were given. A delightful musical programme was rendered by Miss Wimer, Miss Merrill, and Miss Oberly. After singing "America," the chapter adjourned to the dining-room, where refreshments were served.

The principal event of the late season in the Berkshires took place Thursday, when all society drove to Bellefontaine, the magnificent estate of Mr. Giraud Foster, to the annual horse show, arranged primarily for the entertainment of the farmers of Lenox, Stockbridge, Lee, Richmond, and Tyringham, over whose land the huntmen hold their runs during the season. The show followed a breakfast served to 100 farmers and their families, the repast being served in the large dining-room of Bellefontaine. The mountains, in vivid tints of red and yellow, enhanced the beauty of the scene wonderfully, and the affair was thoroughly enjoyable. Cash prizes of $5, $10, and $15 were offered, and in the 2,000 people present were representatives of the most exclusive families of town and country. Miss Heloise Meyer, who has ridden in England as well as the Berkshires, was the only woman to participate in the hurdle event. She showed great skill in handling Vitesse, her spirited mount. Many other enthusiastic horsewomen, who are well known in the hills, where they follow the hounds in the autumn runs, rode in the horse show.

The wedding of Miss Carolyn Burrell Huff, daughter of Representative George Huff, of Pennsylvania, to Mr. Murray Addison Cobb, of Washington, will be celebrated to-day at Greensburg, Pa., the summer home of the bride. The ceremony will take place in Christ Church at 12:30 o'clock and will be followed by a wedding breakfast at Cabin Hill, the family residence. The bride will have as her maid of honor Miss George West, of Pittsburg, and the two little daughters of her brother, Mr. Lloyd Huff, will act as flower girls. Mr. Anthony C. Addison, an uncle of the bridegroom, will be his best man, and the ushers will be Mr. E. Hillard Owen, Mr. Randall H. Hagner, Mr. William H. Merriam, Lieut. John Hudson Poole, Dr. William Dunlop Owens, Dr. J. B. Byrne, and Mr. William C. Huff and Mr. Burrell Huff, brothers of the bride. A number of Washington people went to Greensburg to attend the wedding, among them Miss Grace Bell, Mrs. Fleming Newbold, and Mrs. Cobb's aunt, Mrs. Wilton. The house party which has been entertained by Representative Huff during the week will also be joined by Mrs. Cobb, who has been in New York, and together they will go to Greensburg.

Mrs. Alexander C. Botkin and Miss Botkin have returned from the Rocky Mountains in Colorado, where they spent the summer, and are at Miss Bacon's, 1118 Vermont avenue.

Dr. Dwight Gordon Smith has returned to the city after a week's visit to the Jamestown Exposition. His mother, Mrs. Smith, is also here.

Dr. Dwight Gordon Smith has returned to the city after a week's visit to the Jamestown Exposition. His mother, Mrs. Smith, is also here.

DIAMONDS And Other Gems.

GALT & BRO.,
Established Over a Century,
Jewellers, Silversmiths, Stationers,
1107 Penna. Ave.

Isabel Smith, and his sister, Miss Smith, have recently returned from a month's stay at Atlantic City, and they will reside with him this winter.

Miss Anna Cozlin, of this city, is visiting relatives and friends in New York.

Secretary of the Interior James R. Garfield left Washington Thursday for a brief visit to his brother, Mr. Harry A. Garfield, president of Williams College, at Williamstown, Mass.

Mrs. William W. Belknap, who spent the summer in the Adirondacks, has returned to Washington, and is at the Marlborough. Mrs. Belknap expects to go to New York in a short time, having taken an apartment there for the winter.

Mrs. Burnham, wife of Maj. Burnham, after spending the summer at the seashore and in the Berkshires, has returned to Washington, and is established for the winter at the Hotel Gordon. Miss Sigerson, of Buffalo, N. Y., will be Mrs. Burnham's guest.

Capt. T. H. Allen and Mrs. Allen have closed their place in Virginia and are at their residence, 1756 Church street, for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dunn celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding yesterday at their home, 612 Eighth street southeast. More than 200 invitations were issued for the reception, which lasted from 8 to 11 o'clock in the evening, and the house was attractively decorated with palms and cut flowers. They were married in this city by Rev. Dr. Green, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, at the home of Mrs. Dunn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Marks. Mr. Dunn, who for forty years was a sergeant major in the Marine Corps, was retired May 18, 1897, and with his wife removed to Philadelphia, where they remained for four years, while the rest of their married life was spent in this city. He was born in Philadelphia, in 1856, while Mrs. Dunn is a native of this city. There are four children of the couple living, Edward L. Dunn, Mrs. Hattie Burrows, Charles Dunn, and Mrs. Jennie Buell, and eight grandchildren, Charles C. Dunn, Helen Dunn, Myrtle Burrows, Godwin Dunn, Edith Dunn, Eddie Buell, Thelma Buell, and Harry Buell. Among the out-of-town guests who attended the reception are Mrs. Annie Griffing, of Baltimore, a niece of Mrs. Dunn; Mrs. Joseph Burrows, of New London, Conn.; and Mrs. E. T. Robinson, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

A quiet wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence La Forge, 1221 Fairmont street, Wednesday afternoon, only a few intimate friends being present. The contracting parties were Mr. Joseph De Witt Warner, of New York City, of the United States Forest Service, and Miss Edith May Saunders, of Belfast, N. Y. Rev. Mr. Ross Fishburn officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Warner left Washington on an evening train for Wallace, Idaho, where Mr. Warner is at present stationed.

Miss Daisy Colton, eldest daughter of Col. Francis Colton, will be married to Lieut. Commander Archibald H. Davis November 29, at noon, at St. John's Church. Afterward a small wedding breakfast will be served at the bride's home in Connecticut avenue.

The Misses Sophia and Bertha Wild, of San Antonio, Texas, are visiting their cousin, Mrs. S. F. Compton, of 134 U street northwest.

Corset Cover and Underskirt in One.

The fashion for one-piece garments is not limited to gowns, but extends to undergarments as well. An underskirt and corset cover in one is shown, which will please the stout woman as well as the slender, because of its freedom from bands and belts, and it does away with all extra bulkiness at the waistline. Extra width is let into the skirt in back by means of a double inverted box pleat. The neck is finished with a square-shaped neckband, which supports the fullness of the corset. The garment may be slipped on over the head and the fullness at the waist drawn up by means of a ribbon-run beading, or the fullness may be gathered to the beading and the front opened as far as the belt. For the medium size 2-3-4 yards of 36-inch material are needed.

Six sizes, 32 to 42 inches bust measure. A pattern of this may be obtained by enclosing 10 cents in stamps and addressing Pattern Department, The Washington Herald, 724 Fifteenth street northwest, giving number (2579) and size wanted.

TARGET HONORS FOR MAINE.

Good Scores Made by Vessels of North Atlantic Fleet.

The battle ship Maine carried off the honors at the target practice of the North Atlantic fleet in Cape Cod Bay. Her record was due chiefly to the remarkable showing of the 12-inch rifles, which made a little over 67 per cent. The Georgia made an average of 40 per cent with 12-inch and 8-inch guns. The ranges varied between 5,000 and 5,000 yards. In the short range practice the Minnesota won the highest percentage, making 90 per cent with some of her guns. The Kansas and Connecticut also made good scores.

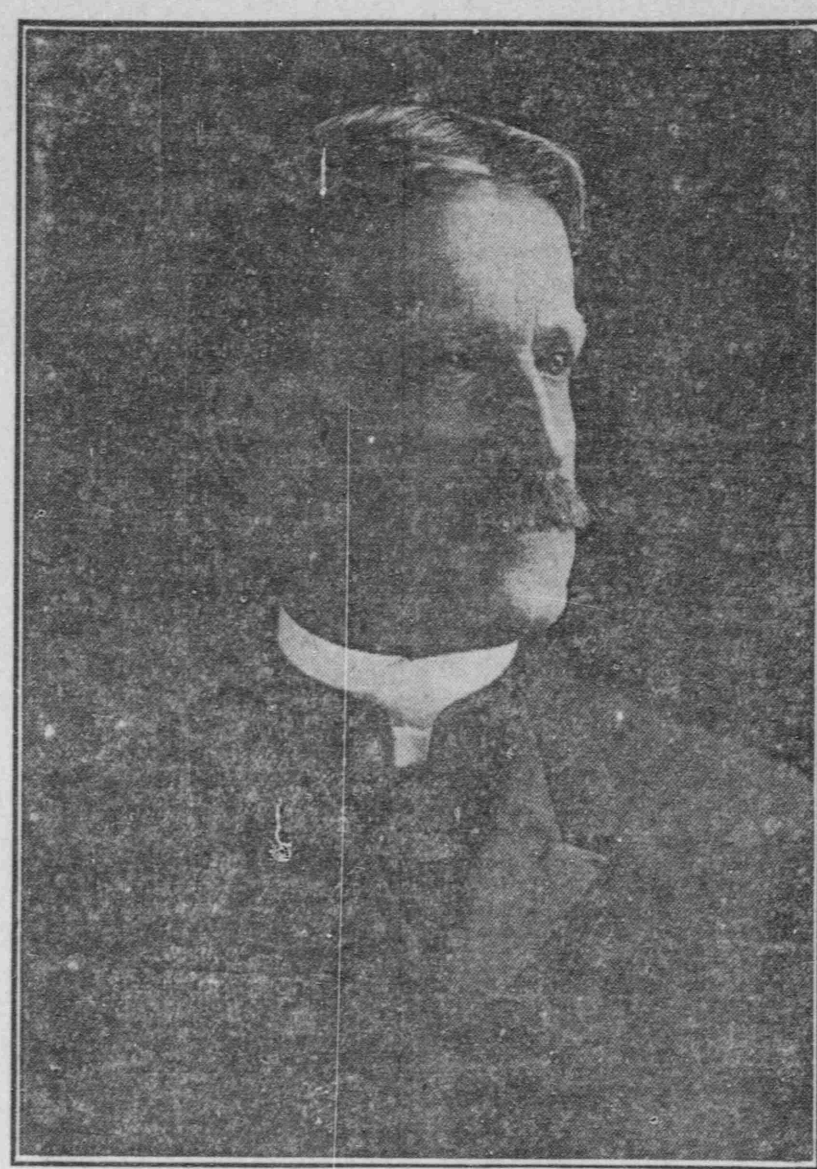

The record of the Maine is generally regarded in naval circles as extraordinary, while the Alabama's showing is considered by naval officers believe the showing is better than that was ever by British gunners in recent contests.

The Louisiana is the only vessel of the fleet that has not completed target practice, but she will go on the range in a few days.

Largest Morning Circulation.

All advertising contracts made by The Washington Herald are based upon its sworn circulation—a circulation in Washington largely by thousands that was ever before attained by any morning newspaper at the Capital. Its books are open.

WASHINGTON PASTORS—XXXVII.

REV. THOMAS O. CROUSE, D. D.,

Pastor of Congress Street Methodist Protestant Church, Georgetown.

Rev. T. O. Crouse is the pastor of Congress Street Methodist Protestant Church, West Washington (Georgetown). He is serving his fourth year in this charge, having been assigned here by the Maryland annual conference in April, 1904. Mr. Crouse is a Marylander by birth, and has spent the greater part of his ministry in that State. He served two pastorate in Baltimore, aggregating thirteen years. He was graduated at Western Maryland College, Westminster, Md., in the class of '71, and entered the Maryland conference of the Methodist Protestant Church in the spring of 1872. The degree of D. D. was conferred by Adrian College, Michigan, in 1895.

Dr. Crouse is a deliberate, clear, and forceful preacher. He has been a frequent contributor to the religious press, and as a writer is recognized as having an easy, lucid, and vigorous style. A number of his short poems have appeared in Baltimore and New York papers. To use his own language, he has "an increasing desire to be known only as a sinner saved by grace, and by the Spirit of God sent out to tell of Him, whom, not having seen, we love; in whom, though now we see Him not, yet believing, we rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory."
